

SEDA NOMINATED AS FINALIST IN TWO CATEGORIES IN THE STANDARD BANK TOP WOMEN AWARDS

Seda has been named as finalist in the Standard Bank Top Women Awards competition in two categories namely Top Woman: Public Sector Leader for which Seda entered its CEO, Ms Mandisa Tshikwatamba, as well as in the category Top Gender Empowered organisation -Public Sector.

As one of South Africa's most prestigious gender-empowerment events, the Standard Bank Top Women Awards recognises those organisations and individuals whose efforts are uplifting women in business and society in general.

With a focus on providing opportunities for women in the workplace, Seda has shown a consistent commitment to driving gender parity. Its contributions to gender empowerment are testament to this.

Finalists and winners at the Standard Bank Top Women Awards have been a source of inspiration to women and men in business for many years.

The Standard Bank Top Women Awards ceremony will take place on 15 August 2019 in Johannesburg. Winners will be announced at a gala dinner on the evening attended by business and government leaders, VIPs and members of the media.

 END ***

